

BUILDING ON WHAT WE HAVE: ACTIVATING ASSETS FOR COMMUNITY-DRIVEN DEVELOPMENT

INTRODUCTION:

In today's age of limited resources, it is imperative to make the most of what we have. And this becomes even more important for workers in the informal sector as they have no proper available resources available at their disposal. Hence, this course aims at teaching the entire community to come together and use the resources available.

DURATION: 1 day

BENEFITS:

Wide community mobilization of limited resources can help increase the income of the entire community in a sustainable manner and hence, through proper planning even increase the number of available resources by understanding their different uses.

TARGET TRAINEES:

This course is designed for informal sector workers like grass root members, farmers, agricultural labourers, or members from any trade. Others may also include small and medium enterprise managers, self-help group members, Master Trainers etc.

PROGRAM OUTLINE:

- ❖ Introduction: Gives an overview of the course and allows the participants to interact and get to know each other.
